Conflict Raged Last Night With
Result of Death of 20 Negroes and 5 Whites

NEGROES TERRORIZING
ENTIRE COUNTRYSIDE

Whites Flee to City With Their Families—Troops on Way to Scene of Terror

AUSTIN, Tex., July 30.—
With a desperate fight between the whites and blacks amounting almost to internecine war,
raging in Palestine, Governor Campbell today telegraphically ordered the ranger militia to disarm the belligerents at any cost. Troops are now enroute to Palestine from Marshall, Fort Worth, Tyler and San Antonio.

According to the latest reports rioting is continuing despite the fact that the police have disarmed many men.
Messages indicate that the entire state is aroused. The whites are arming and swarming toward Palestine
on horseback, by trains, in wagons and automobiles. Other riots are reported in Slocum, Anderson county.
One of the most serious of the Palestine riots occurred at Elkhart, a suburb.

BOITS ARE RAGIN IN PALESTINE.
PALESTINE, Tex.—Twenty negroes and five whites are reported dead, while scores of negroes and whites are injured, as a result of rioting throughout the night near here.
A call was made on Governor Campbell for troops.

Three hundred negroes are terrorising the country side. Scores of white men fleeing from distant plantations with their families, arrived here today. They say the blacks have threatened every white man outside Palestine. Hundreds of whites from nearby towns are arming and coming to their assistance.

The cause of the race trouble
today is still mystery among the majority. Word that a score of negroes had been killed in a riot swept down like wild fire. Immediately the streets were filled with excited people. Officers are anxiously awaiting the arrival of troops. Governor Campbell has wired the mayor that he is coming.

GOVERNOR TO TAKE COMMAND
GALVESTON.—Gov. Campbell will start to Palestine tonight to personally command the militia and citizens who are endeavoring to stop the

ARE PLANTING THEIR CELERY

Acreage About Three-fourths
in—No Trouble With Insect Pests so Far

Celery growers have about three-fourths of their planting finished and so far as can be determined at this time all things look favorable. The plants have not been bothered at all by insects.

The acreage in celery this year will be about 2600 acres, according to the estimate of G. W. Moore, manager of the Orange County Celery Growers' Association. Of that acreage three-fourths will be in the association. The acreage is several hundred acres less than last year. A number of ranchers have turned their attention to lima beans and sugar beets.

race riots. The cause of the trouble is unknown here.

A municipal order has been issued forbidding merchants to sell fire arms or ammunition. A small detachment of troops reached here late this afternoon, but not enough to stop the rioting. More are expected momentarily.
It is believed the mobs will be controlled before night. Reports that ten negroes and five whites were killed during the early riots are verified by dispatches to the state officers.

Texas Rangers Ordered to Scene
FORT WORTH.—A company of Texas Rangers have been ordered to proceed to Palestine to quell therace riots there. Few details have been received here except that a score of negroes have been killed. The cause of the trouble is unknown.

STATE TROOPS READY FOR CALL

AUSTIN.—The adjutant general this afternoon issued a general order that the state troops be held in readiness for duty at Palestine. One regiment is already enroute.

SCOTT'S ROLLS ACCEPTED BY BOARD THIS MORNING

The county board of equalization
today accepted the assessment rolls of County Assessor W. M. Scott.
Since those rolls came into the possession of the board of equalization
on Monday, July 11, but three changes in figures were made by the board of equalization, and two of those changes were made at the suggestion of the county assessor.

Those two changes were corrections in clerical errors, one taking off an assessment of the Pacific Electric for a double track for 2.59 miles
where there was only a single track, and the other taking off $600 from the assessment of Mark Lacy. The third assessment was the reduction on land

SPAIN OPENLY AGAINST CALLS MINISTER FROM PAPAL COURT

Pope Pius Counters—Orders
Papal Nuncio Back
From Spain

ANTI-CLERICALS WILD
WITH JOY—OTHERS SAD

Downfall of Alphonso and Ministry is Predicted—Don
Jaime Wants Crown

ROME.—Monsignor Vico, the papal nuncio to the Spanish Court, was recalled today by Pope Pius. This action of the holy see followed the recall of Ambassador Emilio Deojeda, the Spanish representative to the Vatican, by King Alphonso. With the mutual recall came the severance of all diplomatic relations between the pope and the Spanish Court.

CONSTERNATION PREVAILS
IN CAPITAL OF SPAIN.
SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain.—The recall of the Papal nuncio, and the complete severance of diplomatic relations, has created consternation in the capital today. Although dispatches from Madrid are closely censored, they indicate that the anticlericals have gone mad with joy, while the radicals are predicting the overthrow of the ministry, and the downfall of King Alphonso. Military commanders have received orders to be ready to occupy Madrid.
Heavy guards are stationed at the palace to protect the royal family.

RIFFS RESUME ACTIVITIES

CEREBRE, FRANCE.—While Alphonso, and his ministers, are facing an open revolt, news was received here today that the Rif tribesmen, against whom the Spanish waged a bloody war in Morocco, are renewing their activities. The priests are preaching a holy war. The first clash today resulted in the death of thirty-five Spanish.

The situation here is acute. Don Jaime, the Spanish pretender, who is encamped near the border with ten thousand followers, today issued a formal appeal to all loyal Spaniards to join him on his march to the capital. The proclamation reads:
"I expect to take the place devolving on me by birth. I expect the people to rally with me against the enemies of liberty."

SPAIN'S AMBASSADOR
TO VATICAN RECALLED
MADRID, July 30.—Marquis Emilio de Ojeda, Spanish ambassador to the Vatican, was recalled last night, following a conference between King Alfonso and Premier Canelejas. It is now believed that a rupture with the Pope is inevitable. The conference last night and its startling outcome makes it plain that Canelejas has the support of King Alfonso in his anti-clerical program.

On all sides it is recognized that the country is rapidly approaching a crisis that may end in a revolt by the Carlists. Don Jaime, the Carlist pre-tender to the throne, intimidated as much today.

REBELS THE VATICAN

QUEEN'S LIFE WAS PLOTTED AGAINST

MILAN, July 30.—An anarchist plot
to murder the dowager Queen Mar-gherita was discovered yesterday, the tenth anniversary of the assassination of her husband, King Humbert, who was slain at Monza, July 29, 1900.
The man who was chosen to execute the decision of the revolutionary group gave himself up to the police and after confessing his part in the plot committed suicide in prison.
The Chapelle Expiatoire, erected by order of Queen Margherita on the very spot where the late king was murdered, was inaugurated yesterday at Monza with appropriate ceremonies.

HE PREACHED ABOUT FAITH

Prof. McConnell Delivered a Striking Sermon at Methodist Camp Meeting

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 30.—
Striking words on faith were uttered
this afternoon in a sermon delivered by Prof. McConnell at the Southern California Methodist camp meeting.

He pointed to the faith of the farmer who deposits seed in the cold ground and believes that God will send the sunshine and the rain to give him an abundant harvest. He also laid stress on the faith of the mariner who sets sail for distant lands and believes in his chart and compass to bring him to the desired haven.

Six conversions developed after the sermon by the same preacher last evening.

MCBEAN HERE FOR ANDERSON

Wm. McBean spent today in Santa Ana in the interest of Alden Anderson's candidacy for governor.

Mr. McBean reports that Mr. Anderson was very cordially received at Riverside and that a large number of influential fruit growers and business men gave him assurances of support.

If intelligence and persistence and enthusiasm can avail, Mr. Anderson certainly has in Mr. McBean an efficient representative.

VALLEJO, July 30.—A launch of the Crowley Boat Company of San Francisco was found water-logged today off Brother Island by the crew of the schooner Rlorey.

In the boat were portions of men's clothing. Letters in the pockets, which might lead to identification, were accidentally lost overboard. The launch was No. 13.

SUSPICIONED MAN GROWS RESTLESS ON SHIP

Wireless Brings News of His Unrest to Canadian Officials on Land

GUARD BELIEVED TO BE WATCHING MOVEMENTS

Inspector Dew Arrives—Outlines Plan for Arrest—Reporters Will Go With Him

ABOARD CANADIAN PACIFIC LINER "MONTROSE" (via wireless to the United Press), July 30.—"The Crippen suspect did not sleep well last night. He appeared haggard and worried today. The woman is not so nervous as the man and apparently does not experience the same terror."
(Signed) Kendall, Captain.

Capt. Kendall added that the only persons aboard the ship knowing the couple's identity were himself, the first officer, the wireless operator, and two deck stewards. The first officer, he says, has cultivated Crippen's friendship and obtained information desirable to the detectives. The message concludes:

"Mile. Leneve follows him about like a dog and fawns upon him."

BELIEVED GUARD HAS BEEN POSTED OVER SUSPECT

FEATHER POINT, Quebec, July 30.—
The above dispatch from Captain Kendall indicates that he has posted a guard over the couple aboard the ship suspected of being Dr. Crippen, wanted to explain the mysterious
death of his wife, and Ethel Leneve.
Capt. Kendall also wirelessed the police today, the contents of the message being withheld. It is generally believed he is trying to overhear the couple's conversation, and is also keeping on guard to prevent a possible attempt at suicide by the supposed doctor. The town is filled with curious crowds awaiting the liner's arrival.

Inspector Dew this afternoon outlined plans for the arrest of the couple believed to be Dr. Crippen and Ethel Leneve. He has finally agreed to permit reporters to accompany the boat on which he will meet the liner
if they will agree to remain below
decks until the arrests are made.

Inspector Dew Reaches Quebec RIMOUSKI, Quebec, July 30.—Inspector Dew, from Scotland Yard, arrived at Father Point on the Laurenc-tic at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
He has come to identify Dr. Crippen and was met by three Dominion detectives.

Dew seemed annoyed that the nature of his visit had become public property. He was very reticent when questioned by reporters who had come to meet him on the arrival of the Laurentic. Dew is a tall, brown-complexioned, good-looking fellow.

WENDLING IS IN LAWS GRIP

Arrested at Frisco After Long Trail by Detective—He Admits Identity

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The police today arrested a man they are confident is Joseph Wendling, the janitor of the church in Louisville, in the basement of which the body of Alma Kellner, aged eight, the daughter of a millionaire brewer, was found in a heap of rubbish. He may have admitted his identity.

A detective trailed Wendling from Louisville, after Alma Kellner's decomposed and mutilated body was found in the basement of St. John's church where she had gone to attend mass. Wendling journeyed to Mexico, and Canada, throughout the south, and west to San Francisco. When he was arrested he calmly admitted his identity. He refused to discuss the crime attributed to him. He will be held pending the arrival of Louisville officers.

The police traced Wendling to his lodging house. When inquiry was made of the landlady for Dr. Clare she said no one of his description was there. The officers made a room to room search and found the man hidden in a narrow closet beneath a sink in the kitchen. He was identified by a tattoo and a bullet mark in his hand. After admitting his identity
he told of his flight from Louisville, saying he departed because he had quarreled with his brother-in-law, Louis Arnold. He denied any knowledge of the Alma Kellner murder. He was cool and collected during the examination.

DATE FOR CUTTING RATE POSTPONED

Nov. 1st Set as Time When Lemon Rate of $1.00 Will Go Into Effect

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today ordered the postponement from September 1st to November 1st of the date on which the reduced freight rate on California lemon shipments will become effective.

The rate cut provided was from $1.15 to $1.00 per hundred on shipments to all eastern points. Today's order seems to make it certain that no further postponements are possible.

MARTIAL LAW MAY RULE IN OHIO CITY

Columbus Officials Blamed by Governor for Laxity in Their Duty

MILITIA ARE ORDERED TO RETURN TO THE CAPITAL

But May be Sent to Columbus
Again—Rioting Growing
Worse—Result Feared

COLUMBUS.—The strained situation, involving Governor Harmon, and the local authorities, was intensified today when Adjutant General Weybrecht ordered the Fourth and Eighth regiments of militia back to Columbus.

Gov. Harmon, it is known, was angered because the militia was called out at all, and accused the local officials of laxity of duty. It is believed he may declare martial law in order to control the situation personally, with the result of ordering more troops here.

Individual strikers stoned traction cars throughout the night, and much damage was done. The police prevented the mobs congregating.

Rioting continued throughout the day. It is estimated that twenty cars of the Traction company were wrecked last night. The situation is precarious. The officials fear trouble on Sunday, when hundreds of men will be at liberty.

TROUBLE ON INDO- THIBET FRONTIER

China Plans to Invest Territory
That Will be Resisted by Great Britain

LONDON, July 30.—A dispatch from Simla to the foreign office today indicates that British troops are preparing to proceed to the Indo-Thibetan frontier to prevent further aggression by Chinese troops.

It is no longer doubted in official circles here that China plans the investment of Thibetan and Indian territories. It is known that voluminous correspondence by cable between the foreign office and Indian officials has been going on for several weeks.

From indications it is believed the foreign office expects to make a determined resistance.

RIVERSIDE WILL HAVE FINE AVENUE

RIVERSIDE, July 30.—To help carry out the plans of Tree Warden Reed for the beautification of the business section, the work of transplanting
huge palm trees along Main street has been started. Some fine specimens, from twenty to thirty feet in height, have been planted along the sidewalk line, in the business section of Main street, adding another distinctive attraction. These are set out four to a block, alternating with the mission lighting posts recently erected. It is believed that Riverside is the only city in the United States having its leading business thoroughfares bordered with palm trees.

NEWS FROM OUR TUSTIN CORRESPONDENT

Improvements at School.

Mr. Hultz, of the Los Angeles Machinery and Electric Company was down Monday to make preparations to begin work on the new furnace at the school house. Connected with this furnace is an addition for the purpose of having pure air in each room. The improvement is operated by a motor causing an immense fan to force the pure air into each room by one pipe and the impure air out by another one. This idea is a decided improvement over the old system of heating stoves red hot, then opening the windows for a little pure air, causing drafts and colds and sickness for the children and teachers. The windows during the fan system are kept closed. It is being installed into the new Lincoln school and, in fact, in nearly all the Santa Ana schools.

Leave Soon for New Home.

A farewell party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Pon Wednesday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Myers. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. John Holt, Mr. and Mrs. George Prather and Mrs. P. W. Swartz.

After a pleasant evening was spent at cards, delicious refreshments were served. Then came the best of all. After the worthy couple, who will soon leave here, had told these friends of their intentions, the friends decided to present them with something as a remembrance of Tustin friendship. Mr. and Mrs. Myers were therefore very much surprised and pleased when they were presented with a beautiful tablecloth.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers will leave the first of next week for a few weeks visit with relatives in Ventura, then they go on to Grant's Pass, Oregon, their future home. Mr. C. Miles of St. Louis will be in charge of the drug store, where Mr. Myers has presided so efficiently.

Ranch Exchanges in Tustin.

The new owner is taking out several trees, preparing to build a home soon. It is rumored the home will be built and occupied soon by the young owner and his bride.

Another ranch was purchased lately by Mr. Chas. Blackmore, on the corner of Seventeenth and Yorba. It consists of two acres of oranges. Mr. Blackmore will build a residence soon and make the pleasant location his home.

New Lodge For Tustin.

There will be a fraternal Brotherhood Lodge installed in Tustin tonight at the Bank Hall. It is to be a branch of the Santa Ana Brotherhood. There will be 20 or more to join, as charter members. Further particulars will be given in next Saturday's paper.

BEACH BOULEVARD SUCCESS ASSURED

Col. Coulter's Report to Associated Chambers of Commerce Applauded

Huntington Beach, News.

Col. O. H. Coulter of the Beach Boulevard committee made a cheering report to the Associated Chambers of Commerce. He said that practically all rights of way for the boulevard from the Los Angeles county line to Laguna Beach have been donated and that property owners along the proposed boulevard have promised substantial donations toward the expense of building it, including P. A. Stanton and others. The most serious difficulty in the construction work will be met with in the strip from Huntington Beach to Newport Beach but all obstacles will undoubtedly be overcome, eventually. The Pacific Electric railway has offered the free use of its cars for transporting material even though its own passenger traffic may be adversely affected by the building of the boulevard.

A ferry service will be established at Newport Beach to transport autos and their passengers across the bay. James Irvine, who owns large tracts of land along the proposed roadway, has consented to its being built across his holdings all the way to Laguna Beach, as San Juan Capistrano one man has offered five hundred dollars to the construction fund. The cheering report of Col. Coulter was loudly applauded and his committee was asked to continue its work.

GOOD FOR COULTER

The Huntington Beach News, in its introductory to a sketch of Col. O. H. Coulter (substantially the same as that printed in this paper a few days ago) says, editorially:

"Col. O. H. Coulter of Laguna Beach and Santa Ana is the candidate for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman from this county (77th district) who has been endorsed by the progressive wing of that party. Besides this endorsement, however, Col. Coulter will have the hearty endorsement of every voter who wishes to be represented in our state legislature by a man of clean character, of unquestioned honesty, of native ability and force. When the interests of the people are at stake there will never be a question of how this distinguished Grand Army veteran will vote. Not a politician swayed by expediency, not an orator whose gift of speech is only speech, not even a man learned in many useless accomplishments, Colonel Coulter comes before the voters of this district asking their suffrages because he hopes to represent them fairly, squarely and honestly."

The Register has repeatedly endorsed the candidacy of Friend Wm. Richardson, editor and proprietor of the Berkeley Daily Gazette, for State Printer. This endorsement was and is given, not merely because Mr. Richardson is a personal friend of the editor of this paper; not merely because he is endorsed by the Lincoln-Roosevelt Republican League; not merely because he is a fellow newspaperman; but because we firmly believe him to be the best man for the place among all the candidates. Those who support him for nomination and election will be rendering the Republican party and the state of California a real service.

The Corona correspondent of the Riverside Press quotes Alden Anderson as saying, in an address to the working men at the pottery near that place, "that while it is generally conceded that Hiram Johnson will win the nomination, there is still some doubt as to this state this year being able to elect him governor. Bell, the Democratic candidate, is being hinted at in case Mr. Johnson wins at the primaries."

"There are in the state of California today 50,000 Democrats who have perjured themselves by enrolling as Republicans in order to defeat the Republican party at the primary election." So says the Los Angeles Times. "It should know," adds the Los Angeles Express, "but we would not have believed that the Southern Pacific campaign to defeat Johnson had achieved any such result as that."

One of the best things that has been said regarding the Stanton campaign was gotten off by C. E. Rumsey of Riverside a day or two since. A gentleman was telling Mr. Rumsey that Burdette had come out for Stanton, and he replied: "That does not surprise me a bit; Burdette knows a joke when he sees one, and Stanton as a candidate for governor is certainly a joke."

The Clothier

The Tide Rising and Drifting Johnsonward

By FRANKLIN HICHBORN

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—The close of the first direct primary campaign finds the weak spots in the direct primary law uncovered for general observation. These weak places were known by the real supporters of the direct primary idea, when the direct primary bill was under consideration at Sacramento a year and a half ago; were pointed out and protested against. But to no avail. The machine element had last whack at the measure, and the anti-machine element, to secure any direct primary law at all, was obliged to accept what the machine was willing to give.

Senator Stetson of Oakland, who was one of the leaders for an effective direct primary law, hit it off when in explanation of his vote for the measure he said: "Before voting on this matter, lest any one in the future may think that I have been passed something and didn't know it, I wish to explain my vote. . . . I shall vote for this measure, not because I want to, but because I have to if we are at this session to have any direct primary law at all."

The defects of the law, pointed out by the anti-machine members of the legislature when the measure was under consideration, have been emphasized at the test. It is generally recognized now that the law imposes needless expense upon candidates, that its partisan features are unnecessary and cumbersome, and that the district, advisory vote plan for giving expression of choice for United States Senator is unsatisfactory if not impracticable.

But these defects can be readily remedied by amendment. No more important work will come before the next legislature.

But with all its defects, the direct primary law has been the means of lining up the electors of the state on the one great issue that confronts us; that of railroad domination of public affairs.

As the campaign nears its close, and the sense of the situation sinks in, there is seen everywhere a steady drift to the side of those who stand for a free state. Here in San Francisco one hears Johnson talk, where a month ago his name was scarcely mentioned. On the street cars, in the hotel lobbies, at public gatherings, the issue, as Johnson has been hammering it at the public for nearly five months, namely, the kicking of Herrin and the Southern Pacific political bureau out of the management of the Republican party and the administration of the affairs of the state, is the principal topic of discussion. And Johnson's purpose meets little opposition.

And when one dips back a little into the political history of San Francisco, it is seen that whenever given opportunity on a clean-cut issue of railroad political bureau control of public affairs, San Francisco has always gone on record against such domination. Sutro, for example, made his fight for Mayor on this issue, the octopus, as it was known in those days. With every newspaper in San Francisco against him, Sutro swept the city.

The strength of Johnson's position was well illustrated at the office of the Registrar of Voters the other day. Since the Labor Union party has no place on the primary ballot, citizens registered as members of that party must change their votes if they are to participate in the primaries. The impression has been that the Labor Union politicians would control this vote for Anderson. But among those who have changed their registration, it is found that a large percentage will vote for Johnson.

"We understand this fight," man after man of them has remarked in effect, "and we shall support Johnson."

Another peculiar feature of the campaign has been the disinclination or inability of the primary candidates against Johnson, to hold public meetings. They have contented themselves with going about the state posing as business men, or "glad-handing," but that is all. Anderson held some sort of a meeting at Sacramento, which was soon forgotten; similar attempts elsewhere have met with even less success; here in San Francisco, and over in Alameda County, none of the candidates opposed to Johnson have held any large meetings at all.

On the other hand Johnson has appeared in practically every community of the state, has given his hearers the straight of it without quibble or equivocation. In San Francisco, where, when he started out on his remarkable campaign, even the most sanguine of his supporters could not see that he had any chance at all, he has had the biggest and most enthusiastic political meetings ever held here. The same is true of Oakland. The Johnson meeting at Oakland was, in many respects, the most remarkable of the campaign.

Thus, the campaign is closing with the tide drifting steadily Johnson's way. He has had a definite issue to present to the electors and has presented it; he has had something to say and has said it. And he has impressed the state with his sincerity.

On the other hand, his opponents have had no issue to present, not have they even undertaken to meet the issue that Johnson has raised. They have remained dumb.

And as a result of it all, reports from every part of the state show astonishing increase in anti-machine sentiment, and in Johnson's strength.

Steps Planned

LONDON, July 30.—Home rule for Ireland and Scotland as well, and an imperial parliament with representatives of all her colonies, is the latest and most important step in England's progressive political program which has held the world's attention during the past year. It is also said that the House of Lords will be curtailed as to power and that other vital matters concerning the budget and home affairs have been definitely agreed upon by the leaders of both parties in parliament who have been in conference since it met.

A Correction.

Mrs. H. G. Hull was hostess at the party given yesterday for the Missess Naylor instead of Mrs. Harris as reported yesterday. A misunderstanding of the name of the hostess as given over the phone, was the cause of the error. Mrs. Harris was one of the guests at the pleasant function.

Mrs. Bowers "At Home."

Mrs. A. C. Bowers very delightfully entertained the members of the Veteran Rebekahs Association yesterday, her home being daintily decorated in honor of the event. The affair was an "At Home" and conversation and needlework proved such pleasant diversions that the day ended all too soon.

Yesterday seemed to be "gift day" for the Veteran Rebekahs. Mrs. Findisen of Tustin being the first one favored with a gift, hers being given her on the way to the affair at Mrs. Bowers. The other ladies who were similarly honored were Mrs. Bowers and Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Bowers the hostess and the president of the Association, was given a beautiful Veteran's gold pin by the Marie J. Johnson was given a pretty members of the Association silver cold meat fork by the members. The gift being in honor of her approaching wedding anniversary, the 38th, and her birthday both falling on the same date.

Guests of the hostess besides the Veteran Rebekahs, were Mesdames C. W. Sheats, Susan Mullinix and Belle Buck. Delicious refreshments were served.

Received Gift.

Mrs. Findisen of Tustin was very pleasantly surprised yesterday afternoon while on her way to attend the Veteran Rebekahs "At Home" at the home of Mrs. C. W. Bowers. She had stopped at the home of her brother, John Holt in Tustin, and while there was presented with a handsome Rebekah jewel, the gift coming from her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Holt.

"EXTRAVAGANCE IN MODERN LIFE."

Much is being written and spoken on this subject by thoughtful men. Is the prevailing style of living, warranted by present conditions? What ought to be the attitude of a Christian man toward this question? This will form the subject of the sermon of the Rector at "The Church of The Messiah" tomorrow morning.

EVIDENCE IN SKELLY CASE COMPLETED, ARGUMENT TO BEGIN MONDAY MORNING

The evidence in the trial of Frank F. Skelly, accused of burning his wife to death, is all in. There remains but three things more before the case goes to the jury. The jury is to be taken to Westminster to view the premises. The case is to be argued by the attorneys. The judge is to give his instructions. Possibly by Tuesday evening a verdict will be received.

The trial up to the present time has consumed ten days. Progress has been faster than it was at first thought would be the case. The Overacker trial took twelve days.

The Register's report of the Skelly trial yesterday closed while Attorney Fleming was cross-questioning Skelly. "Did you throw the water on her before or after you attempted to put her skirts over her head?"

"Afterward. She was whirling in a circle. I couldn't hold her. When I first went in, the corner toward the stove seemed to be blazing."

"While your wife ran, she screamed?"

"Yes, sir."

"What words did she use?"

An objection to the question was sustained.

"How far were you behind your wife when she went out the door?"

"Two or three feet."

"Were you in good physical health?"

"Yes."

"Did you try to catch her?"

"I went after water first."

"You didn't light any match and touch it to her that morning?"

"No sir, I did not."

"You don't know how the accident happened?"

"No."

"Mrs. Frost asked my wife, 'Mrs. Skelly, how did it happen?' and as I remember the reply my wife said: 'I was filling the stove while the stove was lit.'"

"Who were present at that time?"

"I don't know for certain."

"Was Earl Frost there?"

"I think about that time."

"Did Mrs. Skelly make any statement before that one?"

"Several."

Attorney Fleming asked a long question.

"If you didn't talk so slow I could get the question better," said Skelly.

Skelly said Mrs. Skelly repeated several times, "Frank, why did you do it?" and "Frank, you have murdered me." He did not think she made any of those statements after the time she spoke to Mrs. Frost.

"Did you hear her say: 'Frank, you threatened me but I didn't think you would do it?'"

"Had you been up before that morning?"

"I don't know. Mr. Gans said I called him that morning. I don't know what morning it was. I heard a noise one morning and I went upstairs. It might have been that morning."

"You now say you heard your wife tell Mrs. Frost how it happened. Did you testify at the coroner's inquest that you did not at any time hear your wife say how it happened?" Fleming read from the record of the transcript.

"No, sir. I don't remember saying that."

"Did you see the tank of that stove that morning?"

"I did not notice it. I have never been in the kitchen since the accident except when I went through with the druggist. I saw some broken glass on the pantry floor two feet or two feet and a half from the stove."

"Did you make the statement, 'I dropped it.'"

"I don't remember making it."

"Did you make the answer 'I didn't know it was gasoline.'"

"There was some talk about fighting the fire, and I think I said I threw water on her. Someone said it did no good to throw water on gasoline, and I said I didn't know it was gasoline. As to 'I dropped it' there may have been some reference to me dropping the dipper."

Juror Rimpau asked: "When you say 'you didn't know it was gasoline' you meant that you did not know she was burning from gasoline or that you did not know what you threw was gasoline?"

"I did not know that she was burning from gasoline."

"After your wife was placed on the cot, did you return to her?" asked Fleming.

"No, sir. I saw her just as they carried her there, and the doctor ordered me to bed."

Skelly walked to his seat.

"The defense rests," said Bishop.

Mrs. William Shamrack was the first witness called on rebuttal.

"You frequently saw Ethel Skelly filling her gasoline stove. How did she do it?"

"She would take the tank off the stove, take it to the oil room on the porch and fill it from the can."

"You testified that you were not friendly with the Skelly family?" asked Bishop.

"Not friendly with Mr. Skelly, but friendly with Mrs. Skelly."

Bishop got from the witness that it might have been nearly a year since she had visited Mrs. Skelly. She did not know how long Mrs. Skelly had the stove.

Sisters Called

Mrs. A. D. Cleaver, sister of Mrs. Skelly, of Wintersburg, testified that she was at the Skelly home on May 7 and heard Mrs. Mary Aldrich say: "It was no accident of Ethel's. She never filled the stove with the glass jar. She was not so careless." She also heard Mrs. Aldrich say to her and Mrs. Dimmock: "If Ethel had an accident it was caused by the children monkeying with the stove, because Ethel was always so careful with the stove."

Attorney Williams asked: "Did you not say to Mrs. Watson: 'I have been expecting this. Ethel was so careless with the gasoline.'"

"I did not," said the witness with emphasis.

Mrs. C. W. Dimmock, also a sister, stated she worked at the Skelly home for a year and a half from 1903.

"We used a gasoline stove in the bathroom for ironing. Ethel used a gallon can. We didn't get much at a time."

Mrs. Dimmock said she heard Mrs. Aldrich make the statement last referred to in the testimony of Mrs. Cleaver.

Mrs. T. J. Lewis, mother of Mrs. Skelly, testified that she heard Mrs. Aldrich make that statement.

"Did you ever see Mrs. Skelly fill the gasoline tank with a glass fruit jar," asked Davis.

"I never did."

Margaret Haines of Long Beach said she worked for Mrs. Skelly for six months in 1908. Mrs. Skelly filled the tank by taking it to the can. Once in particular was when a boy brought a can from the store and Mrs. Skelly filled from the can. She remembered this one instance only.

Frank Phillips testified that on May 9 he heard Earl Frost make the statement Frost had denied making, to the effect that "it looked awful funny that Skelly did not defend himself, that all the time she was accusing him the only thing he said was: 'No, dear, I dropped it.'"

Mrs. Cleaver and Mrs. Dimmock were recalled and testified that they had never seen Mrs. Skelly fill the gasoline stove with a glass jar.

Mrs. Cornelia Phillips, mother of Frank, testified to hearing Frost make the statement to her son.

That closed the testimony. Judge West adjourned court to Monday morning at 9 o'clock. It is expected at that time that the jury will be taken to Westminster to view the premises.

El Modena, Cal., July 21, 1910. Messrs. J. C. Williams & Son Orange, Cal.

Gentlemen. Referring to my Weber wagon, which I purchased nine years ago, will say that I have given it very hard usage and it is still in good condition. The tires have never been reset, although the wagon has stood out in all kinds of weather. I can heartily recommend the Weber to anybody requiring a first class wagon.

Truly yours,
WALTER HELWIG.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Coming directly from a tour of several weeks in the honey-producing section of Southern California, one of the most extensive dealers in the sweet product reports light gathering. The crop will fall short of last year's, which was light. One of the chief reasons lies in the fact that the sage of the mountain sides did not contain the usual amount of nectar. The blossoms were without their fragrance and owing to the very late rains, there was little honey in them. The mountain sides showed very dry soil, no sub-irrigation to speak of, and this had the blighting effect on the flowers. In the alfalfa districts the honey yield is heavier, but not sufficient to counteract the loss of the sage honey, which is considered by far the finest produced. These facts have already had the effect of advancing prices on honey and the higher prices are so firm that further increase in quotations may be looked for.

Trading on the street was very active yesterday morning. In other channels staples moved slowly. Egg receipts were the smallest in months—only 100 cases—which naturally held the market very firm. Case-count in a few instances brought quotations higher by a cent. Northern and coast arrivals were light.

Receipts of butter were 15,680 lbs. The demand for butter was more in the second grades than in the firsts. Prices were firm on reports of similar conditions in the east.

Eastern Daisy cheese was the best seller of the morning. A very firm and advancing market on northern full cream cheese caused a half cent advance here, bringing the market back to 17 cents a pound. Receipts of cheese were 18,619 pounds.

Potato arrivals were 2104 sacks. Some very fine potatoes are being shipped out of the Monrovia district, and are bringing slight premiums over ordinary local stock. Highlands were in good call.

Onion receipts were 330 sacks. Yellow Danvers were down to $2.25 per hundred from a first price of $2.50. Both local and northern Danvers are selling at the same figure. Other onion prices are unchanged.

There were no changes in beans or sweet potatoes. Buying of the latter was heavy.

The price of cantaloupes in one morning advanced very quickly, going from $1 per crate to $2 and as high as $2.50. The farmers stopped picking for a day in order to bring prices up to where they can clear some profit, there being an absolute loss in cantaloupes at 50 cents a crate.

Seedless Sultana grapes, Muscatel and one black variety, which is very similar to the Mission variety, are all selling at $1 to $1.25 per box. Other fruits, plums, pears, peaches and nectarines are bringing the same prices.

Dastardly and Unlawful Attempt to Discredit The Reform Movement

One day last week the Register received in an official envelope without postage, from the United States Marshal's office in Los Angeles a surlous attack on Chas. F. Curry. It was signed "Good Government League."

Knowing that the envelope had been used in violation of law, and that no such matter would be sent out by the Good Government organization of Los Angeles, we promptly informed that organization of what was going on and turned the envelope and the communication over to J. H. C. Wilson, the post office inspector in Los Angeles.

Now come the Los Angeles Express and Riverside Press with stories about this transaction.

From the "Express."

A raw, clumsy, bungling campaign roorback has made its appearance. The author is being sought by the postal authorities for violating the postal laws and if found it probably will go hard with him.

The purpose of the circular evidently was to injure Johnson by making it appear that the good Government leaders in Los Angeles are grossly and scurrilously attacking Curry. In this purpose it has failed completely.

The circular fraudulently bears the signature of the good Government "league," the idea of the writer evidently being to confuse the "league" with Good Government "organization," which has taken such a prominent part in the movement for better politics in Los Angeles. The circular was sent out in the official envelope of the United States marshal at Los Angeles and bore no stamp.

The Good Government organization of Los Angeles is not responsible for the circular, had nothing to do with it and did not know of its existence until today.

Several years ago there was organized in Los Angeles the Good Government "league," which still maintains its organization, but has had practically nothing to do with political affairs for several years. R. H. Norton is president of the Good Government league. Mr. Norton today stated that the organization of which he is president has taken no active part in politics; that it had nothing to do with the circular and knew nothing about it. The source of this scurrilous circular is in doubt. It was sent out under a cover of the official envelope of the United States marshal's office of Los Angeles, as official business and bore no stamp. United States Marshal Youngworth disclaims any knowledge of the source of the circular and states that the person who obtained envelopes from his office which were used for this purpose is unknown to him. The use of official envelopes for private business carries with it a penalty of $300 for each offense. Mr. Youngworth has communicated with the postal inspectors of Los Angeles and asked them to make a thorough investigation and bring the guilty party or parties to speedy justice.

The purpose of the individual sending out this circular can easily be conjectured. The attack upon Curry is so vicious that it is more likely to create sympathy for him than to lose him support. The circular was sent to a number of the Lincoln-Roosevelt papers in the southern part of the state, among them being the Riverside Press, the Santa Ana Register and the Fresno Republican.

Had these circulars been printed and the public given to understand that it came from the Good Government "organization" and not the Good Government "league" of Los Angeles, its effect would have been to injure Johnson rather than Curry.

Another theory is that it might have been sent out by some supporter of Anderson, in the hope that fraudulently purporting to emanate from the Good Government "league" of Los Angeles it might be given serious consideration and thereby serve to take votes from Curry and throw them to Anderson.

Whoever was responsible for this scurrilous bit of political literature made a very bad break when he borrowed the official envelope of the United States marshal to send it out. The envelope was shown to United States Marshal Youngworth this morning. Mr. Youngworth stated that the envelopes unquestionably were from his office, but had no idea who could have secured them or how they were obtained. He stated that steps would be taken immediately to prosecute the person guilty of such an offense.

From the "Press."

"The Press received the circular referred to in the Express story on Wednesday. The attack on Curry was so libelous that no paper would think of printing it, even though there may be a foundation of truth in some of the charges made. Why it should have been sent out in a franked envelope from the office of the United States marshal, who is understood to be an Anderson man, was a poser. Believing the matter should be investigated in Los Angeles, we turned the envelope and circular over to A. J. Wallace and J. M. Eshleman, who happened to call at the Press office soon after the circular was received. The article in the Express followed as a result of their investigation and the article is accompanied by a facsimile of the franked envelope. The matter seems to have aroused a big stir in Los Angeles.

The Press seems to be quite a storm center in this campaign. It was only a short time ago that a letter was received at this office virtually offering us a large bribe if we would take up the fight for a machine candidate for governor; and that communication has been one of the sensations of the campaign.

"We still have a capacious waste basket for roorbacks and a good-sized club for would-be bribers; and we shall continue on to the end of the campaign supporting Hiram Johnson, the candidate of the people."

CASE AFTER CASE

Plenty More Like This in Santa Ana Scores of Santa Ana people can tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills. Many a happy citizen makes a public statement of his experience. Here is a case of it. What better proof of merit can be had than such endorsement?

P. G. Etchison, 820 E street, Santa Ana, Cal., says: "I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills on hand, in fact, I would not be without a supply. There is no remedy that can take their place. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills in 1907, I have had little need to take them. A dose or two on a few occasions when I have noticed any indication of pain in my back has sufficed to completely dispel the trouble. My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills, as expressed in a public testimonial I gave two years ago, remains unchanged, as I value them as highly as ever. I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint for months and if I brought any strain on my back, I was sure to suffer from backache. Knowing that this misery was due to disordered kidneys, I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills. They went directly to the seat of the complaint and I could not have asked for a greater benefit."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

DAMAGE SUIT ANSWER FILED

Dr. Walker W. Adams Replies to Charge Brought by Mrs. Frances Marshall

An answer was filed today by the defendant in the sensational suit brought by Mrs. Frances M. Marshall of Anaheim against Walker W. Adams, an osteopathic physician of Anaheim. In her complaint Mrs. Marshall asked $10,000 damages from Dr. Adams, alleging that he had ruined her life. She declared that she was subject to his will by reason of fear of exposure. The answer denies all statements made in the complaint to the effect that the plaintiff was an unwilling subject, and alleges that the woman at all times consented to arrangements for meetings and was willingly intimate with the defendant. E. E. Keech is attorney for the plaintiff and Tipton & Callor are for the defendant.
